Performers Unite Nationwide in a Spirit of Compassion

Musician and producer, Bobby Fisher, partnering with recording artists, The Pierson –Young Project, and Bellarmino Chapel, located on the campus of Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio, announce for the 3rd consecutive year, the return of a benefit concert “Share the Journey, a Concert for Compassion.” Due to Covid-19, this year’s show will be a 2-night virtual event live-streamed on Friday, October 16, and Saturday, October 17, 7:00 pm-10:00 pm EDT, from Bellarmino Chapel.

The concert will feature a wide array of performers whose work has spanned the globe. Among the 40 plus featured performers are Peter Yarrow, Noel Paul Stookey, Donna Peña, Val Limar Jansen, John McCutcheon, Annie Donnellon Davis, Jaime Cortez, Sarah Hart, Steve Katz, Jesse Manibusan, Tatiana “Tacji” Cameron, Flora Leptak Moreau, Bishop Todd O’Neal and the House of Joy Singers, Dave Hawkins, and Lynné Gray.

The concert will be hosted live by Michael Johnathon, creator, and host of WoodSongs; WCPO reporter, Paola Suro; musician and broadcaster, Ron Esposito, and WVXU radio personality, Elaine Diehl.

Monies raised will support The Kino Border Initiative, The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), and Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio. These organizations work extensively to assist migrants, immigrants, and refugees.

According to Bobby Fisher: “These organizations do much-needed work, providing humanitarian and legal assistance to immigrants, refugees, and their families. I appreciate all the compassionate individuals and organizations who work tirelessly with and on behalf of immigrants, refugees, and their families.”

Links to access the event will be available in September. Donations are accepted anytime before, during, and after the broadcast.
